“ My Aunt Geri was a funny, fun loving woman with a lot of style. As a young woman my mom made some of her clothing and she wore them like a model on the runway. What I've learned from Aunt Geri thru the years was Strength-a state of being strong Endurance-the capacity to last, & Patience -the capacity to accept delay. These are separate words but really three words rolled into one, = God. After overcoming a major challenge in her life, she and I spoke about God's goodness in our lives. I told her once that I was so glad she was back, she asked what I meant by that statement. I said that there was a woman impersonating her and it wasn't My Aunt Geri. She said that God was with her and helped her with her breakthrough, And That She Wasn't Going Back There. AND SHE DIDN'T. She said for the 1st time she could really enjoy life, her family and especially her grandchildren. She renounced all that was not in line with God's plan for her. Isaiah 40:31 But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint. Strength, Endurance, Patience Not only did Aunt Geri give me my name 'Gail' but she and I share the middle name of her aunt, my great aunt 'Sarah Branch" :) I love you Aunt Geri.
