“ Upon hearing of the passing of my beloved Ms. Jackson, I couldn't help but almost instantly think of her beautiful personality, warm hugs, and a smile that would light up the classrooms of PS33. Thank you for being an amazing teacher and an even more amazing figure of love and passion, whom I looked up to at the young age of 8. Thank you Ms. Jackson and may you rest in the most beautiful eternal peace 🕊️

“ I remember working with Effie at PS 33, we worked together for over 10 years. Effie was always sharp looking, well poised and always had a smile on her face. One year when I taught first grade and she was on the first grade as well. The year before one of her students that she taught in Kindergarten, cried, and cried when she got into my class. She wanted to be back in Mrs. Jackson class. So the Principal moved her back so she could be with Mrs. Jackson in the first grade. I didn't mind at all. Because her kids loved her and they would always be clinging to her. They loved playing with her hair. I'll miss you Effie, God has given you your wings, fly on my beautiful sister. Rest peacefully and know your work here exemplified excellence. Peace and Love, Sister Girl ❤️🙏🙏🙏
