“ I have great memories of Aunt Estelle & Uncle Milton. My Mom (Geraldine B) and Father (Willis) visited often when we were young and it was always a good time. It was also good to see them both a couple of years ago when we took my Mom to see her Aunt who was more like a sister to her since Aunt Estelle lived with her(Geraldine was the daughter of Ernest B) for a while growing up. Aunt Estelle filled in so much family history for me. She will be missed.

“ It is very sad for my family and me to express condolences for my Aunt Estelle Burwell Holst. I say Burwell because neither one of us were married when we met. We were very young when she came to live with my family – my father Ernest and my mother Eva Burwell. She was my father’s sister and we bonded as sisters. She often said, “Daddy said we must treat each other as sisters.” When she left to live with her sister, Annie in New York, it was one of the most disappointing times of my life. I really missed being with her - talking over the latest fashions and other things we anticipated growing up. You see, I was an only child. Eventually, we married and had children: Estelle with “Pea-nut” and me with my daughters Cassandra and Denise. I remained in Philadelphia with my husband, Willis Collier while she remained in Yonkers. Willis and Wilton “Mitt” got along well conversing and discussing how to grill. We would visit in the summers to their bar-b-ques and family gatherings. Oh, we had a lot of fun!! I can still hear Mitt call her, “Stell phone.” We felt we had a special connection especially as we grew old together – even though we did not want to admit growing old. I am also very disappointed that I was not able to be with her. I trust she will forgive me, my sister - aunt whom I will never forget and whom I loved.

“ So sorry to learn about Estelle's passing. I last brought her a beautiful birthday dish, filled with colored roses and flowers. She was like a grandmother and special friend to me and my family. I remember that she and Milton loved the fishing trips to New Bedford.
May she rest in peace!

“ When ever aunt Estelle and uncle Milton would come to Virginia for a visit during the Summer we would always be so excited. Their time here with us will stay in our hearts always. We loved you both!!

“ My condolences to the Holst Family. I was lucky to have met Aunt Estelle when I visited New York. She was such a bright spirit. I enjoyed our conversation.
