“ Like it or not Uncle you lived life and lived it your way. Well you could be the biggest pain in the butt you could also bring much laughter. In an emergency or a family function, without having a vehicle, you manage to be the first to arrive, lol. I remember you didn't want your Bruce's calling you uncle because you didn't want your lady friends knowing how old you were 😊. I also know no matter what, you loved your family. Uncle Hodges, we're going to miss you. You're free now, fly high, you're amongst the best tell them all hello from the rest of the family. 🙏💙
