“ Titi Pat! You were so much fun and had the warmest, most genuine smile. A beautiful soul who loved and cared DEEP, DEEP for your family and close friends. ❤️

When I was growing up, I absolutely loved being in your presence. I would get excited to learn we were going to New York to visit family. I just knew that we were going to spend time in Yonkers with you, get to see all your little knick knacks at home, listen to great music, walk Broadway, eat great pizza, visit with Arthur and Khe (who were also such a great time!), laugh tremendously, and get to "scratch-off" lottery tickets! 😊❤️

You were and always will be a true definition of a selfless human being. I will always remember the good times and wonderful memories we shared together. Khesha, Arthur, and family, I am so deeply sorry for this tremendous loss. 😞

“ My Dear Titi Pat! What an amazing woman. She loved her family unconditionally and gave so much of herself to care for her loved ones all of her life. She was an exemplary woman with so much class, always looking sharp, smelling good, and so confident as she walked. She will always live in my memory and heart.

“ Porfidia Melendez "Pat", what a loss! A woman with a heart of gold. Giving, understanding, fun, happy, smart, encouraging, supportive believed there's nothing you cannot accomplish if you just give yourself a chance and believe in yourself. We shared so many beautiful times. She was one of the best examples of someone who gave of herself so often.. I women with a beautiful smile loved her family so much. I'm so thankful to God that when I was 15 years old she came into my life. Happy are those who knew her.
