“ I like to express my sincerest condolences on the passing of your love one. May the outpouring of love serves as a reminder of how much Mr. Smith was loved by all who knew him. God's word found in the bible offers comfort and hope during difficult time such as these. 1 Corinthian 1:3,4 reminds us that God is the God of comfort, and how he wants to be there for us when facing trails. John 5:28,29 gives hope of being reunited with our love ones who have passed. I'm enclosing a link (or visit jw.org) to where you and your family could find continued comfort as well as the opportunity to see what God's plans are for the future which offer hope for all of humankind.
