“ My Myoho Sister. When we first met I was inspired by your plan to help out with the Juneteenth celebration at SGI. We had such fun! We set up salons and each performer that sat down got up with a beautiful head wrap. All made out of the same beige canvas fabric yet each one tied in a different style.

Another SGI Year celebrating Juneteenth I remember you and I waiting patiently at the African market on 116 street while Tessa John bargained for fabric to make friendship bracelets and bookmarks for all the attendees while you and I made pins and bracelets for the performers.

One year we opened the SGI Juneteenth celebration and I can still hear your powerful song to the ancestors.

I just couldn't work without you and found you up in Yonkers just in time for us to work cheerfully together once again making the Year of Victory shaped necklaces for the August 2019 People of African Descent conference at FNCC in Florida. I never imagined that would be the last time we would see each other.

I'm forever indebted to you and Onaje for taking me to the jazz summer camp where we spent the day into the evening going from tent to tent listening to the graduating students many of them and their parents stopping to thank Onaje for the music lessons he taught. I miss you both ❤️.

Rest In Nmrk Peace and Power my Sister and Brother. ❤️🙏😊
